he island of Jamaica has long been considered one of the most beautiful wedding destinations. It is for this reason as well as their passion for executing events that Shikima Hinds and Carmel Legros have formed the company Island Bride Jamaica. The mission is pretty straightforward: to be the number one resource for brides and wedding professionals for destination weddings in Jamaica. The company's website, www.islandbridejamaica.com, that focuses exclusively on the island of Jamaica will be launched in January 2009.

The site encompasses all the relevant information to assist couples in making the best choices when it comes to their destination wedding in Jamaica and will certainly make life easier for countless couples planning a fabulous wedding. "Jamaica is one of the top five places for destination weddings in the world, and over 5,000 destination weddings take place on our shores every year," explained Shikima Hinds, managing director of Island Bride Jamaica, and goes to great pains to explain the limited resources for nonresidents to plan their weddings. The services she provides aim to alleviate the stress that comes with planning a wedding.

Island Bride Jamaica is not just a typical wedding directory with a list of service providers. The new site will have a tropical yet contemporary feel with lots of information available for the user. Brides-to-be will be able to get details directly from each wedding professional through and will benefit from Island Bride Jamaica's Wedding Concierge Service that facilitates everything from airport transfers, tours and hotel bookings for family and friends attending the wedding to keeping them thoroughly occupied ahead of the actual day.

There's good news too for local wedding professionals who can benefit from registering with the company, as couples will be able to contact them from the company's database that will include access to florists, caterers and wedding planners, to name a few. "We encourage local wedding planners to register with us, as they will see great benefits as couples and their families will have free access to Island Bride Jamaica's database." The content of the site will also introduce the international market to a wide range of products and services available on the island, as the company will have a public relations officer in Miami and there are plans to collaborate with international wedding magazines. The website will also offer information and tips needed to highlight the perfect destination wedding experience in Jamaica. With Island Bride Jamaica, you'll have everything you need for planning a wedding in Jamaica at the click of a mouse.
